Together these components make up Infratab Freshtime. Infratab's Freshtime technology platform simply and securely monitors, tracks and traces a perishable's condition. At the core of Freshtime is Freshtime Points®, the most powerful metrics in the market for quantifying and measuring the freshness of a perishable. These are metrics that can be authenticated, validated and audited. Using Freshtime Points, a perishable's condition can be monitored, forecast, and budgeted by any or all who handle it, be it the brand, the transporter, the seller or the user. For the brand it means greater consumer confidence and trust. For all it means longer use and reduced spoilage.
